Napa Valley College Hospitality Institute is presenting TiPs training to hospitality professionals on Tuesday, 2- 5 p.m. at the Napa Chamber of Commerce.

TiPs is a certified program providing the skills to help servers, sellers and consumers of alcohol how to prevent intoxication, drunk driving and underage drinking.

Hospitality professionals will acquire the customer services skills to professionally handle customers consuming alcohol and limit potential liability for their business.

At the end of the training a certified examination will be offered to participants.

NVC Tips will be delivered by Hospitality Institute coordinator Charles Monahan who is a certified TiPs instructor.

Participants will receive a certificate upon completion of the training and passing the exam.

The cost is $45 and includes materials and the examination.
